

Sarah Winningham, M.A., BCBA

Objective I am seeking a position as a Board Certified Behavior Analyst.

Education 2010-2011 Ball State University Muncie, IN
Completed master's program in Special Education with certificates in Applied Behavior Analysis and Autism. Completed BCBA certification program and received BCBA credential.

2004 - 2007 Marian University Indianapolis, IN
Magna Cum Laude Psychology degree received with a concentration in writing.

2000 - 2004 Decatur Central High School Indianapolis, IN Academic Honors Diploma, Graduated in the top 5%

Awards and ▪ PCM Certified ▪ Employee of the Month ▪ CPR and First Aid Certified

Activities ▪ Marian College Presidential Scholarship recipient ▪ Secretary of Psi Chi National Honors Program

Work 2010 – Present Cornerstone Autism Center
Board Certified Behavior Analyst/Clinical Director

Experience

▪ Responsible for supervising therapists in administering ABA therapy to children with autism. Developed individual treatment plans and programming for clients based on initial assessments using the VB-MAPP, ABLLS, and AFLS assessments. In charge of daily operations and clinical management of center operations.

2009 – 2010 Behavior Analysis Center for Autism
Applied Behavior Analysis Therapist Trainer

▪ Responsible for providing one-on-one and group instructional and behavioral therapy to special needs children and training new employees on ABA methods.

2007 – 2009 Verbal Behavior Center for Autism
Applied Behavior Analysis Therapist Trainer

▪ Responsible for providing one-on-one and group instructional and behavioral therapy to special needs children and training new employees on ABA methods.

2005 – 2007 Indiana Reading Information Services WFYI Teleplex
Operations Manager/Board Operator

▪ Responsible for coordinating and assisting volunteers, managing the radio broadcast and dial up services, managing office tasks, studio preparation, and recording programs.

Skills ▪ Knowledgeable in ABA/Verbal Behavior methods ▪ Experience supervising BCBA candidates

▪ Compile, analyze, and interpret data ▪ Proficient in VB-MAPP, ABLLS, and AFLS assessment tools

▪ Proficient with use of online ABA programming tools ▪ Responsible for budgeting, hiring/terminating employees

References available upon request.